Under current law, the Secretary of State is required to suspend, without preliminary hearing, a person's license to drive for a period of at least three years if the Secretary of State finds that person to have recklessly or negligently operated a motor vehicle so as to cause the death of another person. This bill reduces the mandatory minimum administrative license suspension from three years to 90 days, creates a maximum administrative license suspension period of four years, and removes reference to reckless operation as unnecessary since a suspension is determined by the Secretary of State's application of the lesser civil standard of negligent operation.
