information under the existing law is set by the department; the amendment requires that the fee be calculated by the department to cover the full labor, overhead and other costs of administering the order pursuant to state rules and federal regulations.

The amendment adds an appropriations and allocations section.

Enacted Law Summary

Public Law 2015, chapter 275 provides for the removal of the sunset provisions contained in Public Law 2013, chapter 150. It clarifies that the amendments made by Public Law 2013, chapter 150 apply to small claims court disclosure proceedings and allows the judgment creditor to obtain Department of Labor wage information when the judgment debtor has not conformed to the requirements of an installment payment order. The judgment creditor must file an affidavit that describes how payments made by the judgment debtor, including those received late, have been applied to support the judgment creditor's motion based on there being at least two unpaid installment payments. The judgment creditor may serve the order on the Department of Labor by ordinary mail and the order must be accompanied by a reasonable fee set by the Department of Labor to cover the costs of processing the request and providing the employment information. The Department of Labor must provide the employment information to the judgment creditor within 20 days after receiving the court order. The fee the Department of Labor may require is set by the department and must be calculated by the department to cover the full labor, overhead and other costs of administering the order pursuant to state rules and federal regulations.

Chapter 275 includes Other Special Revenue Funds allocations and corresponding Federal Expenditures Fund deallocations to the Employment Security Services program within the Department of Labor to transfer and reallocate the cost of the vacant Office Associate II position from the Federal Expenditures Fund to Other Special Revenue Funds. Chapter 275 also includes Other Special Revenue Funds allocations for the All Other costs. It is assumed that sufficient revenue will be generated from the fees to cover the personal services and all other costs of the position.
