Joint Standing Committee on Marine Resources

declared lobster zone.

Public Law 2016, chapter 428, like the bill, provides that an apprentice program may not require a person registered to enter an established island limited-entry zone program to apprentice in the zone in which the island limited-entry zone program is located. Public Law 2016, chapter 428, like the bill, reduces the support required in a referendum of island residents to establish an island limited-entry zone program from 2/3 of lobster and crab fishing license holders to a majority of license holders.

Public Law 2016, chapter 428 requires that, when calculating the number of trap tags retired for purposes of applying an exit ratio, the number of trap tags retired is considered to be the total of the greatest number of trap tags purchased in any prior year under each license that is not renewed, up to the zone maximum. Public Law 2016, chapter 428 allows a lobster management policy council to recommend that an exit ratio be based upon licenses that are not renewed or upon retired trap tags and, if the ratio is based upon retired trap tags, whether the exit ratio should be applied retroactively to a specific date.

Public Law 2016, chapter 428 provides that a lobster management policy council must post an agenda publicly at least seven days prior to the council meeting if the agenda includes items that would affect the ability of people who do not hold lobster and crab fishing licenses to participate in the lobster and crab fishing industry.

Public Law 2016, chapter 428 requires the Commissioner of Marine Resources to maintain, for persons who have requested to declare a limited-entry zone as their declared lobster zone, a waiting list of persons who did not hold a lobster and crab fishing license in the prior year and a separate waiting list of persons who did hold a lobster and crab fishing license in the prior year. The commissioner must adopt rules to administer entry of persons who held a license in the prior year into limited-entry zones.

Public Law 2016, chapter 428 requires the Commissioner of Marine Resources to verify at least every three years the waiting lists of persons wishing to enter a limited-entry zone. A person who does not respond to a verification request within 90 days is removed from the waiting list. The commissioner may place a person who does not respond back on a waiting list in the position where the person would have otherwise been when the person shows that the lack of response was due to being on active duty with the Armed Forces of the United States or the National Guard.

Public Law 2016, chapter 428 changes the date by which the Commissioner of Marine Resources must determine the number of new zone entrants in each limited-entry zone from February 1st to April 1st.
