Joint Standing Committee on Agriculture, Conservation and Forestry

reserved lands;

3. Directing the Bureau of Parks and Lands within the Department of Agriculture, Conservation and Forestry to identify areas where the State does not currently have deeded access to the State's public reserved lands. This amendment also requires the bureau to direct regional foresters in the bureau who are familiar with the physical landscape and landowners to develop goals and priorities regarding increased access to the State's public reserved lands and requires the bureau to submit their findings to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over public reserved lands matters by March 1, 2018;

4. Directing the Bureau of Parks and Lands within the Department of Agriculture, Conservation and Forestry to develop a statewide priority list of recreational infrastructure projects for the State's public reserved lands and a statewide priority list of projects under the federal Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 for the State's public reserved lands. The priority lists must be presented to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over public reserved lands matters by March 1, 2018. After receipt of the lists, the joint standing committee is required to hold a meeting for the purpose of obtaining public input related to the lists; and

5. Directing the Bureau of Parks and Lands within the Department of Agriculture, Conservation and Forestry to review its bid process for timber harvesting and road construction projects, including any liability concerns related to the bid process. The bureau is directed to report to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over public reserved lands matters with any recommended changes to the bid process by March 15, 2017.

This amendment also strikes the section of the bill that provides the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over public reserved lands matters the authority to approve all expenditures from the Public Reserved Lands Management Fund.

In addition, this amendment includes a legislative findings section that addresses the consistency of the educational grant program's providing one-time grants to eligible public secondary and postsecondary institutions for educational programs related to logging with the permitted uses of the Public Reserved Lands Management Fund and finds that the Legislature, in permitting such transfers, is acting pursuant to their authority as trustee of the State's public reserved lands.

Finally, this amendment adds an appropriations and allocations section.
