Joint Standing Committee on Inland Fisheries and Wildlife

Committee Amendment "A" (S-30)

This amendment changes the title and replaces the bill. The bill provides that a permit is required to import exotic wildlife or possess wildlife in the State or receive exotic wildlife and stipulates the requirements for that permit; the amendment instead provides that a person who allows wildlife in captivity to escape that person's possession or control in violation of rules governing keeping wildlife in captivity or an additional permit condition or requirement commits a Class E crime.

This amendment was not adopted.

Committee Amendment "B" (S-284)

This amendment changes the title and replaces the bill. The bill provides that a permit is required to import exotic wildlife or possess wildlife in the State or receive exotic wildlife and stipulates the requirements for that permit. The amendment provides that a person who allows wildlife in captivity to escape that person's possession or control in violation of rules governing keeping wildlife in captivity or an additional permit condition or requirement commits a Class E crime if the person does not immediately notify a law enforcement officer or if the person notifies a law enforcement officer but the wildlife is not permitted. If the wildlife is not permitted and escapes and the person does not immediately notify a law enforcement officer, the person commits a Class D crime.

For clarity, it is noted that this amendment was reported out after the bill was recommitted to the committee. Committee Amendment "A" was the majority report when the bill was first reported out; Committee Amendment "B" was the majority report when the bill was subsequently reported out after being recommitted to the committee.

Enacted Law Summary

Public Law 2017, chapter 285 provides that a person who allows wildlife in captivity to escape that person's possession or control in violation of rules governing keeping wildlife in captivity or an additional permit condition or requirement commits a Class E crime if the person does not immediately notify a law enforcement officer or if the person notifies a law enforcement officer but the wildlife is not permitted. If the wildlife is not permitted and escapes and the person does not immediately notify a law enforcement officer, the person commits a Class D crime.

Amendments Adopted

This bill requires the Commissioner of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife, if antlerless deer permits are issued, to issue antlerless deer permits to applicants who are chosen through a public chance drawing. The commissioner is required to adopt rules by November 1, 2017 establishing a public chance drawing for antlerless deer permits, including provisions for awarding to applicants who are not selected for a permit points that increase the applicants' chances of being selected in a subsequent consecutive year.

The bill requires the commissioner to issue antlerless deer permits to veterans, who are not required to participate in the public chance drawing. The number of permits issued to veterans is determined by the commissioner annually based upon the deer population.
