Public Law 2017, chapter 138 was enacted as an emergency measure effective June 7, 2017.

LD 472

An Act Regarding Parental Rights

Died Between Houses

Sponsor(s)	Committee Report	Amendments Adopted
ESPLING E	ONTP OTP-AM

This bill amends the law to stipulate that parents have a fundamental right to make decisions concerning the upbringing, education and care of their minor children and requires courts to order shared parental rights and responsibilities unless the limitation of one parent's fundamental rights is supported by a compelling state interest and narrowly tailored to serve that interest through the least restrictive means possible.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-441)

This amendment, which is the minority report of the committee, strikes the portion of the bill requiring a court to order shared parental rights and responsibilities in a divorce or parental rights and responsibilities proceeding unless it finds a compelling state interest to justify an alternative arrangement. The amendment instead provides that the State or a political subdivision of the State may not infringe a parent's fundamental right to direct the care, custody and control of the parent's child unless the infringement is justified by a compelling state interest and narrowly tailored to achieve that compelling state interest through the least restrictive means necessary.

This amendment was not adopted.
