This bill creates a gun violence restraining order to authorize a court to order a person to surrender that person's firearms and ammunition for a specific period of time when it has been proved that the person poses a danger of causing personal injury to that person or another person. The bill provides that:

1. A law enforcement officer may file for a temporary emergency gun violence restraining order, which expires in 21 days;
2. A law enforcement officer or a family or household member of the person may request an ex parte gun violence restraining order, which expires in 21 days. The court is required to hold a hearing to determine if a one-year order should be issued within 21 days;
3. A law enforcement officer or a family or household member of the person may request that a one-year gun violence restraining order be issued. The plaintiff must prove by clear and convincing evidence that the person poses a significant danger and that the order is necessary to prevent injury because less restrictive alternatives have been tried or are inappropriate in the specific case;
4. The subject of a gun violence restraining order is required to surrender all firearms and ammunition in the person's possession to a law enforcement officer or to sell the firearms and ammunition to a federally licensed
