An Act To Make Post-conviction Possession of Animals by Certain Persons a Criminal Offense

PUBLIC 99

Sponsor(s)	Committee Report	Amendments Adopted
BAILEY D	OTP-AM	H-105

This bill sets the minimum amount of time a person convicted of animal cruelty may not own, possess or have on the person's premises an animal as five years for a Class D crime and 15 years for a Class C crime and makes a violation of these time periods a Class D crime. This bill also provides that a person may petition the court to reduce the amount of time that the person may not own, possess or have on the person's premises an animal upon a showing that the person does not present a danger to animals and meets other criteria.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-105)

This amendment replaces the bill and changes the title. The amendment authorizes the court in a proceeding for a violation of cruelty to animals to impose conditions, including but not limited to prohibiting ownership or possession of an animal or having an animal on the defendant's premises and prohibiting employment that involves the care of or other contact with animals. The amendment provides that an intentional or knowing violation of a court order issued pursuant to the provisions of the amendment is a Class D crime. The amendment provides a procedure for a defendant to obtain a court order modifying the conditions or restrictions set in a court order.
