Joint Standing Committee on Labor and Housing

This bill was carried over in committee from the First Regular Session of the 129th Legislature by joint order, H.P. 1322.

This bill amends the definition of "overcompensation" by an employer to include compensation in the form of paid leave. It changes the maximum amount an employer can withhold from an employee's pay to recover overcompensation from 10% to 5%. It prohibits an employer from recovering more than the amount of overcompensation paid to an employee in the three years preceding the discovery of the overcompensation. The bill also specifies that the section of law regarding overcompensation by employers that includes these provisions does not limit or affect an employee's general civil remedies against an employer.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-732)

This amendment, which is the majority report of the committee, amends the definition of "overcompensation" to exclude compensation in the form of paid leave. It also provides a definition of "employer."

This bill was carried over in the Senate to any special session of the 129th Legislature by joint order, S.P. 788.
