LD 1294 Resolve, Directing the Maine Human Rights Commission To Implement a Pilot Program To Investigate and Report on Incidents of Harassment Due to Housing Status, Lack of Employment and Other Issues

RESOLVE 113

Sponsor(s)	Committee Report	Amendments Adopted
TALBOT ROSS R MOORE M	OTP ONTP	H-666 TALBOT ROSS R

This resolve was finally passed by the Legislature and then held by the Governor at the end of the First Regular Session of the 129th Legislature. During the Second Regular Session, the resolve was recalled from the Governor's desk and, as described in this summary, was acted upon without reference to committee.

This resolve directs the Maine Human Rights Commission to create a two-year pilot program to receive, review and investigate incidents and complaints of harassment due to a person's lack of employment or housing status and other reports of interference with a person's access to public accommodations. In carrying out the pilot program, the commission must investigate and respond to incidents and complaints of harassment as set out in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 5, sections 4611 and 4612. The commission is authorized to use any of its powers under Title 5, section 4566 to carry out the pilot program and may limit its scope. The commission is authorized to establish an advisory board to document and evaluate complaints and to advise the commission as to which incidents and complaints should be acted on and possible solutions. The commission is directed to produce an interim report for submission to the Joint Standing Committee on Judiciary by September 15, 2020, and a final report to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over judiciary matters by September 15, 2021. The reports are authorized to contain recommendations on changes to the program or for its continuation as well as proposed legislation to carry out any recommendations.

House Amendment "A" (H-666)

This amendment, which was adopted in the Second Regular Session after the resolve was recalled from the Governor's desk, removes the authority of the Maine Human Rights Commission to establish an advisory board to assist the commission in carrying out the pilot program. The amendment also extends by one year the due dates for the interim and final reports of the commission.
