LD 374 An Act To Allow Veterans, Active Duty Service Members and Their Spouses to Apply for Temporary Occupational Licenses

ENACTED LAW SUMMARY

Public Law 2021, chapter 106 clarifies the eligibility for temporary professional licenses for qualified returning military veterans, spouses of qualified returning military veterans, domestic partners of qualified returning military veterans, active duty service members, spouses of active duty service members and domestic partners of active duty service members. It requires that a license held in another jurisdiction be in good standing in order to qualify the individual for temporary licensure in this State. It makes a distinction between the process for temporary licensure when the profession is regulated directly by the Department of Professional and Financial Regulation and the process when the profession is regulated by a board that is affiliated with the department. It also describes the application process for temporary licensure and allows for the granting of a limited extension to temporary licensure. Finally, it also adds definitions of “good standing,” “recently separated veterans” and “qualified person.”
