LD 964 An Act To Expand Access to Certified Substance Use Disorder Recovery Residence Services

ENACTED LAW SUMMARY

Public Law 2021, chapter 472 requires recovery residences to be certified according to the standards set by a nationally recognized organization that supports persons recovering from substance use disorder, as of July 1, 2022, in order to receive contracts from the Department of Health and Human Services, to receive housing vouchers provided through the Maine State Housing Authority or to receive municipal general assistance housing assistance from a person living in a recovery residence. A person residing in a recovery residence that is not certified may receive housing assistance in the general assistance program for one 30-day period and the overseer of the municipality is required to inform the person that the law requires certification of the recovery residence for housing assistance in the general assistance program. It includes an appropriation that increases a current contract to allow for the certification of the recovery residences.

Public Law 2021, chapter 472 also requires the Department of Health and Human Services to change its rules to establish appropriate maximum housing assistance levels for eligible persons residing in recovery residences that take into account the additional costs of providing recovery residences compared to other shared housing arrangements as well as the fair market rents established by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development that are used to establish maximum housing assistance levels under the general assistance program.
