JOINT STANDING COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION AND CULTURAL AFFAIRS

requires the Commissioner of Education to prioritize grant awards for innovative instruction and tutoring program plans that address educational disparities due to race or income, serve students from low-income households or underserved students to address learning loss or unfinished learning due to extended gaps or interruptions in a student's education and for innovative instruction and tutoring program plans that include partnerships with community-based programs.

Grant recipients must submit reports to the department in each year for which the recipient has received grant funds, and the Commissioner of Education is required to issue guidance and best practices, including but not limited to mechanisms to expand innovative instruction and tutoring program plans using any federal funding available for this purpose and potential pathways into the teaching profession for program staff working toward educator certification.
