STATE OF MAINE
131ST LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR AND FIRST SPECIAL SESSIONS

LEGISLATIVE DIGEST OF BILLS AND SUMMARIES OF ENACTED LAWS

This Legislative Digest of Bills and Summaries of Enacted Laws provides the disposition of all LDs and summaries of all laws enacted or finally passed during the First Regular and First Special Sessions of the 131st Maine Legislature. Please note that all LDs and proposed amendments may be found through the Legislature’s webpage, and each includes a summary of what the bill or amendment proposed.

The Legislative Digest of Bills and Summaries of Enacted Laws is arranged alphabetically by committee. Within each committee section is a subject index of all LDs considered by that committee as well as a digest of the LDs, arranged by LD number. Also included are enacted law summaries of the LDs enacted or finally passed. Brief analyst notes on certain LDs are also included: a committee digest will indicate if additional notes are provided for an LD. These notes add information staff found useful and may provide useful information to users of this Digest; please note that most LDs do not have a note and lack of a note should not be interpreted as having any significance. A separate section of the Digest provides a digest of the relatively few LDs that were not referred to a committee or reported from a committee as a committee bill; enacted law summaries of the LDs enacted or finally passed are provided. Finally, an appendix provides a summary of relevant session statistics.

The final disposition of each LD is noted in the relevant summary digest and index. The following describes the various final actions.

LD 118 An Act to Ensure Continuity of Care for Pretrial Defendants

ENACTED LAW SUMMARY

Public Law 2023, chapter 38 authorizes the State Forensic Service to disclose prior court-ordered evaluation reports pertaining to the pending criminal charges of pretrial defendants to institutions for the care and treatment of people with mental illness or residential programs that provide care and treatment for persons who have intellectual disabilities or autism into which the Commissioner of Health and Human Services is considering placing a defendant when the court commits the defendant to the commissioner for observation in such an institution or program.

LD 136 An Act to Clarify Court Jurisdiction of Actions Involving Children Brought Under the Maine Uniform Probate Code

ENACTED LAW SUMMARY

Public Law 2023, chapter 63 clarifies the respective jurisdictions of the District Court and the probate courts of the State over actions concerning minors brought under Title 18-C, the Maine Uniform Probate Code. It adds proceedings pursuant to the Maine Juvenile Code brought against a minor child to the list of pending District Court actions involving a minor child that will give the District Court exclusive, continuing jurisdiction over Title 18-C actions involving that child and it removes actions for protection from abuse and harassment from that list. It also provides that the District Court has exclusive, continuing jurisdiction over current and future Title 18-C actions involving the child if the child has been the subject of an order terminating parental rights, appointing a guardian including a permanency, emergency or interim guardian, awarding parental rights to a third party or granting an adoption.

Public Law 2023, chapter 63 also establishes an exception to the grant of exclusive, continuing jurisdiction to the District Court if the action that would otherwise provide the grounds for the District Court's jurisdiction is initiated when the action is under advisement with the Probate Court after a testimonial hearing unless the Probate Court determines that the District Court is the more appropriate forum for the action.

Finally, Public Law 2023, chapter 63 amends the provision of law governing the legal effect of an order entered in a child protection proceeding, including a preliminary protection order, to clarify that such an order generally takes precedence over any other order regarding the child's care or custody, even if the other order was entered after the preliminary protection order. It also clarifies that this general rule does not limit the authority of the District Court to determine parentage during the pendency of a child protection proceeding, to consolidate a child protection proceeding with another matter or to resolve a child protection proceeding through the entry of a parental rights and responsibilities order, a guardianship order or an adoption order.
